FELLOWSHIPS

Inter-American Foundation (IAF) Grassroots Development Fellowship Program 2014-2015 Competition. Fellowships are available to currently registered students who have advanced to candidacy (by the time research begins) for the Ph.D. in the social sciences, physical sciences, technical fields and the professions as related to grassroots development issues. Apply through Institute of International Education by January 6, 2014. http://www.iie.org/en/Programs/IAF-Grassroots-Development-Fellowship-Program/Application

Kellogg Biological Station Long-term Ecological Research (KBS LTER) Fellowship competition, 2014. Full Year: The KBS LTER Graduate Fellowship provides stipend support ($30,000) plus tuition and fees for one year beginning each May (3 credits for each of Fall and Spring semesters, 1 credit summer semester). Applicants must have passed their comprehensive exam prior to the application deadline. Summer: Two LTER Summer Research Fellowships will each provide up to $6,250 of support to offset tuition and fees during Summer 2014, with the balance provided as a stipend. These non-renewable fellowships will support MSc or PhD students interested in or currently conducting research in association with the Kellogg Biological Station Long-term Ecological Research (KBS LTER) Program (lter.kbs.msu.edu). Applicants must be graduate students currently enrolled at MSU. Deadline: February 3, 2014
