PASSAGE

Carl K. Eicher, University Distinguished Professor Emeritus, passed away at home on July 5, 2014. Dr. Eicher devoted his MSU career to advancing African agricultural development and training African agricultural economists and scientists. No public memorial service has been announced to date.

JOBS

Texas A & M University, Department of Agricultural Economics, is seeking a candidate for Assistant Professor and Extension Economist – community Economics and Business Development. Responsibilities require individual and team efforts to plan, develop, implement and evaluate curricula, extension education programs and applied research related to economic development issues facing communities, businesses and other industry clientele. https://greatjobs.tamu.edu/

Umea School of Business and Economics is seeking a candidate for Assistant Professor in environmental and resource economics. The position is located at the Center for Environmental and Natural Resource Economics (CERE). The applicant should have broad expertise in economics, with special emphasis on environment and/or energy economics. She or he shall also have experience in participation in and managing research projects and have good knowledge of Swedish institutional conditions related to the energy and/or the waste sector. September 1, 2014 www.usbe.umu.se

Université Catholique de Louvain, Belgium, is seeking 1 postdoctoral research and 1 PhD fellow in the field of ecological transition (law, ecological economics, political science and bio-engineering/agronomics), with a focus on food systems. September 15, 2014 http://biogov.uclouvain.be/application

All announcements should be sent to Debbie Conway, Editor, in Room 202 Morrill Hall of Agriculture or e-mail: conway@msu.edu NO LATER than 12 noon on Thursday; after 12, they will be in the next BI-WEEKLY edition.